

Pitha Utsav 2025

"Pitha" (পিঠা) refers to a traditional food in Bangladesh and some parts of India, especially Bangla-speaking regions in India.

Pitha Utsav (পিঠাউৎসব) is a cultural tradition that celebrates Bangladeshi culinary art and occupies an important place in Bangladeshi culture. The celebration emphasizes the preservation and expansion of our ancestral tradition of making various kinds of pithas, particularly during winter.

BPPOC (Bangladesh Puja Parishad Of Calgary) organized a Pitha Utsav on 2nd February at New Indo Canadian Centre.

Kids' Art Competition 2025

BPPOC (Bangladesh Puja Parishad Of Calgary) organized an Art competition on 2nd February at New Indo Canadian Centre. Around 15 to 20 participants attended this competition and created beautiful artworks.

Curb Appeal

Dibakar Shill and Shila Rani Sarkar bought a house in Edgemont. For quite some time, they have been trying to transform this house to a home. They have a 3x2.5 feet city utility box in their front yard. Initially, they considered the idea to keep plants for decoration on top, but it couldn't be done. So, Shila decided to paint that utility box with weatherproof outdoor paint, that ended up being an amazing artwork.

"We're in need of financial support from individuals who share our vision"

For many years, BPPOC has been striving to establish a place to call its own. This long-cherished dream is now on the verge of becoming a reality. This space will support Sanatan spiritual activities, children's activities, occasional religious and Sanatan cultural events, and more.
